elegations of school trustees and pawanted—Settled woman to do plain school board here protesting against the proposed consolidation of the schools at Caithersburg and Rockville. One delegation from Laytonsville opposed consolidating the school at Laytonsville and another nearby to that at Gaithersburg. Likewise with the Montrose delegation, who opposed the joining of Montrose school to the Rockville High School.

The opponents to the move say that its chief objection is found in the fact that the children would have too long a distance to walk in winter time.
